

The Mission of XPastor & About WFX

2007
October

The Mission of XPastor

Website

XPastor is an exemplary, free forum of information on leadership and management in the church, devoted to Executive Pastors, Church Leaders and Senior Pastors. The website receives over 200,000 visits per year; 1,800 people have taken the XP-Indicator, 2,300 receive the free XP-Newsletter and 375 XPs have participated in the XP-Salary Survey.

Events & Print Media

XPastor hosts high quality one-day symposiums and two-day seminars to enrich, challenge and stretch XPs, Church Leaders and Senior Pastors. Sponsors are sought who value the Mission of XPastor and can disseminate information about the events.

Further Education

XPastor fosters environments for further education for Executive Pastors at the Masters and Doctoral levels, encouraging individuals to study together in qualified programs. XP/AP Doctoral programs are underway at Dallas Theological Seminary and the Evangelical Theological Seminary of India.

About WFX 2007

#1 Event for Church Facilities and Technology Teams

WFX 2007, now in its third year, will bring together 5,000 church and industry leaders and 400 exhibitors from around the world to create the must-attend event for facilities and technology decision-making teams for churches of all sizes. WFX is dedicated to growing churches that are seeking information and resources to help plan, execute and manage their growth objectives through the use of their facilities and today's revolutionary audio, visual and lighting technologies.

Comprehensive event program helps church pros:

Gain inspiration from acclaimed keynote presenters: Craig Groeschel, Founder and Senior Pastor of LifeChurch.tv, and Andy Stanley, Founder and Senior Pastor of North Point Community Church/North Point Ministries. Maximize your learning with focused tracks designed for anyone working to create success in their church's growth. Discover the future of the specialized products and services impacting the worship market from 400 exhibiting companies. Explore the possibilities of church growth firsthand during three Worship Facility Tours. Motivate your team to succeed when you attended WFX together with special group discounts. Network with members from nearly 500 other churches to learn what they did to succeed and overcome obstacles.