
Creating a Legacy Life Plan

— What most older pastors said they should — have done sooner

My Process Work

Storycrafting for Church Strategy

Building Better Boards

Pastor Smart Succession

This process flows from the last one. I got tired of hearing:

“I wish someone had told me that 15 years ago.”

Most appropriate for:

Leaders between 40 and 60 years of age

Legacy Season is that season of life in the last third of our lives where we may not longer be a point leader, but we still have much to contribute.
