

EXECUTIVE PASTOR REFLECTION GUIDE

HOW TO ENSURE YOU'RE NOT BURNING OUT YOUR BEST LEADERS

1	Who are my three highest capacity direct reports?	2	Am I unintentionally overfilling their schedule?
(List their names along with why they are awesome. Why do you trust them so much?)		(Write down the areas you can see that they are working outside of their highest and best.)
3	Are there built-in opportunities to raise their hand for help?	4	How/When will I communicate these opportunities to my team?
	ow will you know when they are nearing but? Do they feel like they have permission to speak up?)		o do you need to talk to? Do you need to a special meeting? Can you add it to an upcoming meeting agenda?)

You're not alone. I'll help you!

Schedule a call with Adam to talk about your needs, the needs of your team and your whole church.
